

UniBrass Contest Livestream

Terms and conditions

By purchasing a “stream pass” for the UniBrass contest you are entitled to watch the UniBrass contest livestream (“the event”) via the unibrass.co.uk website as per the website's standard privacy policy. This pass does not grant you any form of license or ownership over the content shown.

Purchasing the “2026 Stream Day Pass” entitles you to live viewing and playback of the event up to 23:59 15th February 2026.

Purchasing “2026 Stream Year Pass” entitles you to live viewing and playback of the event up to 23:59 31st December 2026. Any additional material made available to users with this pass is at UniBrass’ discretion.

The purchasing of a stream pass entitles one user to one concurrent viewing of the event. UniBrass withholds the right to cancel passes without refund where access is misused or any form of account sharing is detected or expected. Any attempts to circumvent digital rights management (DRM)/concurrency protections may also lead to pass cancellation without refund. Downloading or capturing of the content is strictly prohibited. UniBrass withholds the right to withdraw any pass from sale at any time.

The UniBrass contest live stream is a live recording of the UniBrass contest, and as such unforeseen circumstances may lead to last minute alterations to schedules. Due to the nature of the event, UniBrass cannot make guarantees of performance content. There are no guarantees of any specific bands performing, or performance times. Alterations to schedules will be shared primarily via social media. UniBrass will not offer refunds due to alterations in content or schedule. Due to technical limitations, whilst the event is “live” there is no playback/rewind option available. Playback will be made available as soon as possible after the event has concluded.

UniBrass will not give refunds for temporary drops in stream availability. In the event of significant disruption to the stream a statement will be made via UniBrass social media. If you’re having issues with the UniBrass website please contact contact@unibrass.co.uk or use the live chat feature on the website. UniBrass will not be held responsible and cannot provide support for issues with personal computers/internet connections or any other IT issue apart from the unibrass.co.uk website itself.
